

THE CENTER FOR MARXIST EDUCATION PRESENTS

Sunday, February 26 | 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM

The triumphant story of three extraordinary women whose courage to defy a century of injustice would inspire a nation.

While women's liberation sweeps the globe, in 1960s Ireland four "fallen" women are stripped of their liberty and dignity and condemned to indefinite servitude in the Magdalene Laundries, where they'll work to atone for their "sins."
