Report Back from China

Wadi'h Halabi, CPUSA-Boston

The overall productivity of labor in manufacturing in China is now the highest in the world. Key leaders' attention is increasingly returning to completing humanity's transition from capitalism to socialism. The CME's Wadi'h Halabi reports on his latest visit, the 22d in 16 years. Advancing ecological agriculture in China, cooperation with Cuba, Richard Levins' remarkable legacy, and world labor unity, were among topics discussed.

China: A Century of Revolution

Part One: China in Revolution 1911-1949 (1989)

Richard Pendleton, CME Steering Committee

China: A Century of Revolution is a six-hour tour de force journey through the country's most tumultuous period. First televised on PBS, this award-winning documentary series presents an astonishingly candid view of a once-secret nation with rare archival footage, insightful historical commentary and stunning eyewitness accounts from citizens who struggled through China's most decisive century. Part 1: China in Revolution charts the pivotal years from the birth of the new republic to the establishment of the PRC, through foreign invasions, civil war and a bloody battle for power between Mao Zedong and Chiang Kai-shek.
