

THE CENTER FOR MARXIST EDUCATION PRESENTS
Sunday, October 30 | 6:00 PM – 8:00 PM

A 2011 documentary film, directed by Göran Olsson, that examines the evolution of the Black Power Movement in American society. Its impressionistic visual record of recent history is accompanied by the present-day reflections of participants in that history and younger people who have been influenced by it.

Join Edward Carson and Richard Pendleton in a post-film discussion about matters that reflect the current plight of black people.
